This matter is before the court on the defendant, Luis Lazo-Escobar's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [37]. The defendant is serving a state sentence, requires an interpreter, and has reached an agreement with the government to resolve the case but requires additional time to complete plea paperwork. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [37] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for February 28, 2022, is continued to April 4, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and April 4, 2023, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances and only after requesting a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.
4. The Final Trial Order [36] is vacated.

DATED: February 21, 2022.
